Osborn, editor of the Mattawa Tribune, in the last issue of that worthy little journal says: "We remember Deseronto 40 years ago when it was Mill Point, covered with hickory trees and juniper bushes, and not a sign of a village to be seen. The first mill burned down was built there 47 years ago and had for its owner a man named Dueson. We were among the first who took grieve to that mill crossing the Bay of Quinte from Green point in a balsamwood 'dingy' and carrying his large family, cedar mill, dry kilns, saw and door works, carp shop, ship yard, machine shops, chemical works, roller for mill, terra cotta, brick kilns, public schools, fine churches, handsome halls and offices, bank, steam boat and railway business, fine streets and squares, with a population of 3500, all built up and brought together by the energy of the Mattawa man, John Usher, who, in 1846, with the beautiful town is named, planted the British flag on that spot in 1785, and flanking the town is the Mohawk Indian reserve."

lumber stopped on the Grand Trunk track at the Junction and left early in the morning, the engine leaving the east pulling nothing but the conductor's van.

Football.

A team of the Deseronto football club go to Napanea to-morrow to play the Napanea club.

Large Cargo.

The steamer Resolute was loaded yesterday at this port with thirty-carloads of lumber, representing 327,750 feet. There were 73 tiers from the rail up. This is the second largest cargo she ever took on at this port. She cleared for Oswego last evening.

Salvation Army.

There will be a wonderful Training Home demonstration held in the Salvation Army Barracks on Saturday, June 10th. This demonstration will consist of songs, drama, and music, an anthem by the choir, and also there will be a song given comprising every hour's work done from half-past six to the morning until half past ten at night. The captain and lieutenant will relate their experiences while in the Training Home. Admission, silver collection at the door. Everybody come. Don't miss this treat.

Methodist Conference.

Rev. J. J. Rice left this week to attend the Methodist Conference which met yesterday in Oshawa. The first draft of the committee gives the following changes of appointments in this vicinity: Deseronto, E. Taylor; Tamworth, J. J. Rice; Lindsay, J. C. Ash; Canifiton, G. W. Gardner; Adolphustown, W. R. Tucker; Bay, W. H.
Cook; Selby, F. B. Stratton; Yarrow, E. W.
Marsh; Bloomfield, O. R. Lambly; Demorestville, L. W. Leith; Marlbank, G. R. Clare; Newry, T. H. McDonald; Wellington, T.
J. Edmison.

Robbing the Mails.

The mails from Kingston going east and west by the Grand Trunk at midnight are brought out at a late hour of the evening, and left in a room at the outer railway station. The room is securely locked. On Tuesday night some daring thieves took out a pane of glass and gained access to the room and by the glare of an electric light they succeeded in cutting open the bags which they examined in a most systematic manner. All the letters were opened but only the money in about twenty-five registered letters was stolen. The thieves did not take cheques or drafts. It is not known how much booty was secured. The robbers replaced the pane of glass before going away. None of the railway employees on duty heard the thieves at work. It is doubtful who is responsible for the safe keeping of the bags in such a case. Everyone wonders why the thieves have never attempted to steal the bags as it was so easy to do so.

Easy When You Know How.

Cassey was digging a ditch in the street in front of his house for the purpose of making a connection with the sewer. He had a large pile of dirt thrown up in the roadway and he was rapidly increasing it when stopped by a policeman.

"What are you doing there, Cassey?"

"Don't yer see O'm diggin'?"

"How yer permit to blockade the street with that pile of dirt?"

"O' how not?"

"Thin don't yer know that yer hav no right to put that dirt there?"

"How do I know to wid it, thin?" inquired the puzzled Cassey.

"Oh, jist dig another hole an' tro it in,"
answered the man of the brass buttons as he sauntered slowly away swinging his club.—Boston Journal.

Easy. Had Missed His Calling.

A Harlowe lawyer caught a tramp in his office stealing some lawbooks, which the latter intended to pawn. Seizing the intruder by the collar he exclaimed:

"You scoundrel, I'll have you tried and rattolled up the Hudson."

"Let go my neck, judge. If you are going to have me tried I'd better engage you as my lawyer, as you have the luck to be on hand," replied the tramp.

The lawyer was thoughtful for a moment, and then releasing his grip on the intruder's collar replied:

"You can go."

"The lawyer would have been an ornament to the profession."—Texas Sittings.

Danger In Licking Stamps.

The connection between a habit of licking the gummed surface of stamps and envelopes and an irritated tongue is not entirely imaginary. The mere contact of the mucous membrane with an adhesive substance if often repeated must encourage abrasion of the former. Another element of danger exists in the well known impurities of gum. It is usually as easy as it is advisable to avoid licking stamps, and it is never safe to apply them to a wound.—

The Instinct of Harmony in Color.
Some foreign writers on matters of art say that Americans have no idea of harmony in color and are almost lacking in esthetic appreciation of color effects. The explanation is that we are too busy to select colors, selecting exact and harmonious shades, and that in matters of dress we simply duplicate the colors worn in Paris, regardless of their suitability to our American atmosphere.

The Object of the Attack.

A good story is told of General A. P. Berrill during a siege of a Mexican city, which would Mexican city the story does not say.

"The American army had been in two or three campaigns, and supplies were late in coming. It consequently there was a dearth of scarcity of powder and shot. This was the condition one morning when the commanding officer approached General Berrill, then a lieutenant of artillery, and said: 'There is powder in the fort, but not in the magazines.' He said: 'There is a crisis at hand, and I think you had better spell the town.' General Berrill reinstated. 'I have only

"I think we can wait till more ammunition arrives," he said.

"You shall the towel," thundered the general, "and beat at once." Several other officers arrived in the meantime, among them a young man who had been a witness from Imperial Force. The gunners and sergeant loaded the gun in response to orders. Three officers stood by the cannon. The gunner stood back, layard in hand, waiting for the signal.

"Fire!" roared the general.

"Beg pardon, sir," responded the sergeant, turning to Gerrill. "What shall I fire

Treby, "the oldest market town in the county," "There is a lot of young country boys and girls as you ever saw, tatfooting a floor like mad," and he adds admiringly: "The difference between our country dances and these figures is about the same as lecherously stirring a cup 'o' tea and beating a butter pudding." Indeed the dancing school is so good that it stirred the poet's indignation, "I have never felt so near the glory of patriotism, the glory of making by any means a country happier!"

Gratitude of the Father. The Daughter's Health also improved. Kickapoo Indian Remedies the Friend of the Family.

My little boy has been a terrible sufferer from colic, resulting from the measles, and for two years he had been treated by the best physicians at different times, and we had tried numerous remedies. Learning of Kickapoo Indian Oil we obtained it, and used it according to directions, and the boy was cured within five minutes, and has had no attacks since. I would not take $10 for my little boy if I could not get another, and I gladly recommend it for all it claims to do. My daughter's health was also wonderfully improved by the use of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, and I consider the Kickapoo remedies invaluable in every home.

HON. WM. F. CODE.
"Buffalo Bill."

Stomach Troubles Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa is a Blessing to Ladies.

I regard the Kickapoo Indian Sagwa remedies as truly wonderful. I have been a great sufferer from stomach trouble, and was unable to find relief from any source until I heard of these valuable remedies. The Kickapoo Indian Sagwa entirely cured me of my troubles, and the other remedies of your preparation have proved efficacious in every case, as I have reason to know.

MISS NELLIE GAUDY.

All Else Failed!

Doctors Powerless to Relieve. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa Cured.

For the past twenty-five years I have been terribly afflicted with sciatica, and have tried everything there was in the market, but could get no relief. A year ago I purchased six bottles of the Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, and by its use was completely cured, and the entire poison was eliminated from my system. I always keep it in the house, as I and my wife both take it whenever we feel it. It is a "run down" remedy. I would rather pay $5.00 a bottle for Kickapoo Indian Sagwa than to be without it.

COL. CHARLES D. SLAYER.

"It is a Wonderful Medicine!"

Kidney Troubles Conquered.

I have been a great sufferer from kidney trouble and was unable to find relief in any treatment. Learning of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, I began taking it, and now am thoroughly cured, and my appetite and strength are fully restored. I feel that Sagwa is a wonderful medicine, and recommend it to all who are afflicted with it.

JACOB ZIMMERMAN.

Chronic Headache.

Found no Relief except in Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, the Greatest Blessing to the Human Race.

For two years I had been more or less afflicted with headaches, and had failed to find any relief. I was recommended to use Kickapoo Indian Sagwa during my last attack, and by the second day my headache stopped, and I have had no return of it since. My headaches came from a liver and stomach trouble, and the Sagwa made its curative effect felt at once. I cheerfully recommend Kickapoo Indian Sagwa to all who may be afflicted, believing it to be the greatest blessing of the human race.

MILDRED EVERSOLE.

Kickapoo Indian Cough Cure

Breaks up a Chronic Cough.

The father had been shot in the head and breast; the mother had been shot just below the bridge of the nose and her throat had been cut, and both had died without a struggle. The daughter had evidently made a desperate fight for life, her face and hands being pounded and bruised and her throat cut from ear to ear. Wima, of Deseronto, who first heard the news as he stepped ashore at Belleville from the Ella Rose excursion on Sunday. The afflicted family will have general sympathy in their loss and sad bereavement. The remains will be interred at Belleville to-day. Deceased was 25 years of age and unmarried.

DESERONTO DEFEATS NAPANEE.

The Deseronto Football Club eleven, which went to Napanee Saturday last, followed up its success since organization, by defeating Napanee 4 to 2. The game was played on the Napanee Driving Park. Referee Cole started the game at three o'clock, and at the end of the first half the score stood Napanee 2, Deseronto 0. Napanee's last goal was scored without opposition, the whole Deseronto team awaiting the referee's decision on a foul by Napanee in the Deseronto goal. The referee did not see the foul and Napanee was entitled to a goal. In the second half the Deseronto boys were on their feet, and within twenty minutes from starting they had scored four goals. Satisfied with this they kept the ball in mid-field, without making any vigorous attempt to score again. The ball was up and the game was fast throughout, considering the nature of the ground, and Napanee played a game to be proud of. The following composed the Deseronto team: Goal, Holmes; half-backs, Ed. Gaulin, Edwards; forwards, Sexsmith, J. Gaulin, Day, Wright, Crowe.

NOTES.

Wight and Day played a beautiful combination game.

The Gaulins used distinguished themselves.

The Napanee boys left nothing undone for the welfare and entertainment of their visitors.

The same team will play Newburgh next Saturday afternoon on the grounds of the Deseronto Driving Park.

Fire Drills in Private Houses.

At one of the houses in Mayfair a novel and not altogether purposeless form of entertainment or experiment was devised. The housewife, a lady of the name, determined to have a private fire drill in the use of it, with a view of the inspection being to be carried out. Accordingly, at midnight (the alarm was given out, and the ladies and visitors of the house held manœuvres the escape, and all alighted on the pavement in safety. Such practice is worth the attention of other householders, and perhaps the midnight drill is the more effective as most fires come at that time. Lady Maple has such drills carried out periodically at her city and country houses, and the fire drill at Holloway college has become a matter of celebrity. New York Sun.

Recklessness Easily Pardoned.

One of the old residents of Mount Vernon was Theodore Marston, who moved into the place before it was a town and settled on the south side of lot next to Redfield, where he made himself a good farm. He was a simple, but a man of the strictest honesty and a remarkably generous to the poor. When he sold a poor man a bushel of wheat, he never struck the measure, and he would put his hand on his heart and say, "Something in here will tell when it is full enough," and it was never "full enough" till well rounded. In 1816, which is known as the cold season, he kept his granary open for those who had no cash and cautiously round about him. "You can get it somewhere else; I keep it only for those who can't pay,"—Lewiston Journal.

How the Norwegian Bathes.

In Europe the only paucity that I know of who take a bath every week are the Norwegians. The custom there is a very old one, and it is attributed thereto that the Norsemen call Saturday "Lords," or "washing day." They differ from the Japanese in that after washing their hair, they put on clean linen and their best clothes for Sunday. In Germany personal cleanliness is restricted to the upper classes, and baths are looked upon as even a still greater luxury than in France, being confined entirely to the houses of the very rich.—Cor. New York Tribune.

Serving Honestly.

Scene—A Parisian restaurant. Enter a fussy old gentleman, who, after choosing his table, says to the waiter and says confidentially: "I want a really good dinner. Here's your tip beforehand. Now what do you recommend?" Waiter (looking at the old man round about the client's ear)—Go somewhere else!—St. James Gazette.

Frances Willard has somewhat astonished the English by suggesting that the "grill," behind which all women except peeresses have to conceal themselves to listen to debates in the house of commons, be placed in the British museum as a relic.

It was sometimes a wonder to those who knew Rossetti casually that his friends bore so patiently with his moods and impulses, but it was nevertheless true that he was deeply to be commended that his family were universally tolerated.

The common name of the Easter festival in the east was the Paschal feast, begun kept at the same time as the Pascha, or Jewish passover, and in some measure succeeded in its aim.

A MEETING.

A broth and a grog and a blessing Disputed them and tugs the way,
And one was a "bottle," and one was a "doubt."

And they met tonight with this maiden,
And the promise is kept and lied,
And the doubts it gathered and hugged it,
And the rainy day—the died.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Cloves and Soaps.

Cloves are dangerous little articles. Many of the girls nowadays "touch up" their complexion, you know. Of course no really nice girl does it to any extent, for although it's no longer connected with vulgarity as it used to be still it rather stamps a gleam as being conspicuous, not to say loud. It is connected somehow in our ideas with bleached hair, blackened eyelashes and other unpleasant deceptions that never deceive any one. But it is such a temptation to rouge a little in the evening, and when a girl does it artistically, and many of them do, it is not to tell from the real hair, but the nature is so chary in its showing, and it is in cases of this kind that the innocent looking, pleasant smelling little clove may do its mischief. It is said by the best authorities that if a girl is rouged and a man sees cloves and then, to put it plainly and vulgarly, "blows on" her cheek, that self same cheek will turn black. But all the smart daws who have heard this and the nature of their interment and very suspicious hearts to try it on some unsuspecting sweet feminine creature should also be informed that while the rule holds good in most cases yet there are some kinds of rouge that are not affected by cloves, just as there are kinds that dry water. And any girl who uses that sort may, or get caught out in the rain, or rub her cheek with her handkerchief to prove to you that she is innocent of the charge, and yet for all that she may be artistically painted.—Chicago News-Record.

Among painters the power of manipulating white, is not in simple body color only; but in thin washes, is an inheritance from the Chinese.

fore the County Judge, Messrs. Wm. McCune, Robert Miller and Samuel Miller, of Deseronto, and Chas. McFarlane, of Tyndington, were members of the Grand Jury.

The Napanee Express mouse and walls over the station at Deseronto. The Deseronto football club upon the collegiate institute of that town. It trumps up charges against the referee and incites excesses which are the worst of the trouble. The Deseronto will believe that it voices the Napanee team in this matter.

At Belleville, last Saturday, the police magistrate heard a charge preferred against Mr. Platt, a teacher of Tyndin-gton, for assaulting Sarah Platt, one of his pupils. It appears the school teacher took the little girl in the face. Platt admitted the charge, said the costs of the court and the matter was dropped.

Flower Terrace on Dundas street well deserves its name this year. The plot of ground in front of each residence shows a profusion of pretty flowers and several make a fine display of ferns. If all the citizens followed the example of these tasty residents what a change would be effected in the appearance of Deseronto.

Councillor Whitton's residence is nearly completed. It will present a very pretty appearance. Councillor Irvine's three new cottages on Thomas street will soon be ready for occupancy. Mr. R. Adam's new brick house on the same street is being resided forward and Mr. Edward Cole's brick cottage on Dundas street will also be completed in a few weeks.

It would not be a very expensive nor difficult job to grade the north side of Dundas street east of Centre street and down a good piece of boardwalk to Fourth street. This would make one of the most pleasant promenades in the town, as it would afford a view of the bay and be a convenience to pupils attending the public school and to the general public. Our town council have shown a deplorable lack of fore-sight in neglecting to provide a few small parks for recreative purposes. Failing there let us have plenty of promenades. No town in Canada is better fitted out with boardwalks than Deseronto, but there is always room for improvement.

For'd old theatre in Washington, the building in which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated, and used by the United States government as part of the office of the surgeon-general of the army, collapsed last Friday morning. There were 475 persons mostly clerks, employed in the building.
Workmen were engaged in excavating in the cellar preparatory to introducing an electric light plant, and it is supposed they had dug beneath the foundation supports in the front of the building weakening them so that the walls gave way. The building, as it is, has long been considered unsafe. Twenty-four lives were lost and fifty-two persons were seriously injured by this catastrophe.

At meetings of the Toronto and Niagara Conferences of the Methodist Church, Dr.
Dougherty voiced the opinion of the large and important assemblies when he complained that the Methodist of Canada did not receive their rightful share of public honours in the Dominion. He said, there was only one Methodist who in the Ontario convention there was no representative of the denomination.

Mr. William Toppings, a pastor of the Methodist Church of Deseronto, long, had three sheep killed by dogs last Sunday. It is said that the owners of the dogs refuse to kill them, but as any one can now see the value of the sheep, there is no doubt that the dogs will be killed and the owners receive their just.

A cricket match between the Deseronto and Royal Military College clubs will be played at Kingston on Saturday, 21st inst.

Don't forget to have all your accounts cleared and paid to book like now, at Parsons & Co. of Toronto. Representatives will be here Monday next; agency at E. H.
Lapp & Co. Grocery store, Deseronto.

A boy named Joseph Bridgdon, aged thirteen years, was run over by a shunting train at Carleton Place on Sunday.

A noisy gang of young rowdies disturbed residents on Dundas St. George and other streets about nine o'clock last Sunday evening.

The North King called here on Wednesday evening on her way to Chicago with a large party of excursionists for the World's Fair.

Our thanks are due to Rev. J. J. Kior for copies of late Chicago newspapers. Mr.
F. D. Gordon and family are re-moving from Toronto to Montreal.

The prospect still continues good for a large crop of strawberries this year and prices will be very low. The weather continues warm for another week. All small fruits are promising well in this district.

Thursday, July 6, is the date fixed for the springing of the Duke of York and the Princess May. Yesterday was the last day upon which subscriptions were to be received for the proposed present by the women of Canada.

R. Manning, one of the men employed on the Rathbun Company's drive, fell off the boom just above the slide at Kilmont and was drowned. He was about thirty years of age and it is alleged that he had been about forty feet from where he fell in. The re-mains were sent to Fenelon Falls where he resided.

On Wednesday the two-year-old son of James Harnden, of the Slush Road, was playing with other children when one struck him in the face with a piece of broken glass splitting his nose and causing an ugly wound. He was brought to Deseronto where Dr. Yeomans dressed the wound.

Mr. Namith recently received intelligence of the death, from diphtheria, of three children of Mr. George Evans, of New York. All three deaths occurred within three days. The many Deseronto friends of the Evans family will sympathize with them in this very sad bereavement.

Canada is holding its own in the matter of serious crimes. At Windsor on Monday evening, Capt. James Hickey was shot and instantly killed by a young man named John Vrooman. Hickey's wife left him a few weeks ago and it is alleged that Vrooman had been two intimate with her, and that she had led to a quarrel.

A great many went up to the grounds on Saturday to witness the anticipated baseball match between the Carletons team and a nine from the machine and locomotive shops.
The visitors were disappointed, the Carletons nine failing to connect. The sons of Tuba Cain aver that it was a case of "luck" on the part of the Carletons nine.

Business men complain of a number of debtors, chiefly young men, who run up bills here and there and then refuse to pay.
Some of them clear out of town and the others who remain here, it is said, do it in little way to invoke the law, as it entails expenses, and a dollar a week is about all that can be collected from them at best by a judicious summons.

There is a rumor that a family on the gravel road, Richmond, sent their children to the Mount Pleasant Public school when diphtheria was in their household. If this is the case the school board has been responsible for the death of the children. It is likely some of the neighbors will be public spirited enough to bring him to justice.

Over one hundred young men who are on the present voters' list of Deseronto township are now residents in the United States.
The exodus to Uncle Sam's domains has been considerable this season. This season parts of the Bay district. The statement has not yet arisen who has the ability to check the tide of emigration from this fair dominion to the great republic.

Will the Spanish caravels pass up the Bay of Quinte on their way to Chicago, is a question asked every day. If we had a Spanish consul here a favorable answer might be given. The Spanish consul of the United States vice-consul cannot be secured that official being at present in Europe. As the relations between Spain and Italy are at present of a friendly character, perhaps the Italian consul would intercede in behalf of the Bay route.

The Streets Committee are deserving of credit for the work done this year. Most of it has been in the right direction. Several much needed drains have been excavated and a great deal of new boardwalk has been laid down. During the past week a new boardwalk has been placed down on the north side of Thomas between Mill and Green streets. With a few crosswalks to be added, there is now an unbroken stretch of boardwalk on both sides of that street from the Terra Cotta Works to Brant street.

The agitation for a good boardwalk to the cemetery has broken out afresh and there is a general desire that the Council should take an appropriation for this purpose.
The walk to the cemetery and Unger's Island is most pleasant during the summer months and hundreds would find their way to the pleasure of the walk would be enhanced by a good boardwalk.
While the cost would be considerable, it ought to be paid, as it would be very burdensome. If built with stringers near the outside of the planks it would not be so liable to get into bad repair. People attending funerals would not require to plow through mud and dust were a good boardwalk erected.

The Rathbun Company last week among other heavy shipments sent five carloads of glass, such as French casements, window frames and a quantity of dressed lumber to South Africa by steamship from New York.

Frank Powles fell off a wagon last Friday and his arm was broken by the fall. Dr.
Newton dressed the fracture. John Cronk, wright of the Cedar Mill, had his hand caught in a saw, but the saw did not cut while the another was lacerated. Dr. Yeomans dressed the wounds.

With to-morrow expires the period of grace extended by the Board of Health to persons who had failed to comply with its regulations. All delinquents reports after this week will be prosecuted. In this connection we may say that the cholera is abounding in various parts of Europe.

The Ladies of the Steady Gleamer Society of the Church of the Redeemer will hold a Lawn Festival on the beautiful grounds of the Church of the Redeemer, on Saturday, June 24th, and evening of Thursday, June 25th. Several ornamental booths will be erected, and the following program will be given: Lawn tennis, croquet, lawn bowls, etc., etc. All will be dispensed at 5 o'clock. The Ladies' Band will perform. The proceeds of the festival will be devoted to the purchase of a new piano for the church.

AN OLD CHURCH.

WITH AN INTERESTING HISTORY AND MANY MEMORIES.

In 1650 there came from Radnorshire, Wales, a company of people who settled in Pennsylvania at a spot they called Red-ro Valley. Here in a sheltered dale they erected what is now one of the oldest churches in America—a building whose aged walls are covered with a luxuriant growth of ivy, and which is surrounded by venerable trees centuries old. Tradition says the first church on this site was built of logs, but the present stone edifice dates from May 15, 1715. No pews were at first provided but everyone was at liberty to carry his own chair or stool. Afterwards the custom arose of seating four spaces on which pious men might erect pews to suit their individual fancy.

There is a decided flavor of primitive times in the tradition that in this building the colonists assembled to take measures for resisting an anticipated attack by the Indians under Pontiac. Revolutionary memories also cluster around it. Like the great majority of the church of England clergy of that period, the rector, in connection with the liturgy, continued to read the prayers for the King and royal family, which caused so much dissatisfaction that he was obliged to resign "on account of age and infirmities." At this same time the lead in the window sashes was converted into lead for good Queen Anne, was carried off. The sash of liberty had little respect for anything belonging to the Church of England. Sixteen unknown dead from the battle of Brandy were said to have been buried near the gallery steps, and the separatist inhabitants of the United States, who were wandering nightly in the ancient churchyard, were the first to be buried. The Rev. Andrew Waynes, over which was erected the handsome monument dedicated July 4, 1800.

Proposals have been made in recent years to reconstruct and modernize this ancient building, but happily a sentiment has prevailed against any change. The quaint features of the venerable pile command the reverence and respect of a large element of the parishioners. No church in America possesses more unique features. Established during the reign of William III, it is closely connected with many stirring events in this country's history, and it is one of the few structures of the past which has stood unscathed by the ravages of time and the hand of the iconoclast.

A WESTBROOK LADY'S CASE.
Westbrook, Ont. June 12th. One of the most popular ladies of this district and one who has been for years as strong a worker for the church as health would allow, has recently after six years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles, been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Her case was one most pathetic to our knowledge; she had tried all remedies, had interviewed many famous specialists, and had tried treatment at Kingston Hospital, only to be discharged as incurable. She was quite hopeless, and resigned herself to a few more years of horrible suffering, when by chance, without much confidence in a cure, she tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. She has taken in all six boxes and is now entirely cured and able to devote herself to her duties with youthful energy. No one could be more thankful and generous in praise than she. She has told everyone for miles around of her release from a bondage of pain, and has said to your correspondent that the proprietors of the remedy do not advertise half enough. "It should be proclaimed from the house-tops," she said. "I am positively convinced that it is a certain cure for all forms of kidney disease. No one can thank its discoverers more than I."

Total $3,235.54.

KELSEY—Why would you believe a minister's word sooner than any other man's?
"Witness—Because he is supposed to preach the truth and tell the truth. Why do you ask the question? Well because the Rev. A. L. Snider, pastor of the Methodist church, Lennoxville, says: 'I have been cured of the most painful and distressing case of piles of long standing by MAGIC PILE LOTION,' and recommend it to all thus afflicted.'

Simply Awful

Worst Case of Scrofula the Doctors Ever Saw Completely Cured by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

"When I was 4 or 5 years old I had a great ulcer on the middle finger of my left hand, which got so bad that the doctor would not touch it, and later took off more than half my hand. Then the doctor said it was a scrofula and I was cured. But it came out on my neck and face on both sides, nearly destroying the sight of my eyes, and on my right arm. Doctors said it was the worst case of Scrofula they ever saw. It was simply awful! Five years ago I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Gradually I found that the sores were beginning to heal. I kept on till I had taken ten bottles in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am now a healthy man. I have had no more of it. I return it just for that investment! A thousand per cent! Yes, many thousands. For the past 4 years I have had no more."

ST. MARK'S CHURCH NOTES.

An interesting meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to Missions was held last Saturday.

Considering the great heat of Sunday the church was not excessively warm. An elevated position has its advantages in summer at least as a church site.

The Clergy and Lay delegates of the diocese have been in attendance during the past week at the annual Synod in Kingston.

Attention is directed to the local service of the Ladies' Sale to be held on Wednesday next on the Church grounds.

To-morrow (the 24th June) is the Festival of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, herald of our Lord's public ministry. The miraculous birth of St. John the Baptist and all we know of subsequent history is told us in the opening chapters of the Gospel.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Wm. Pryn, Jr., of Napanee, and a traveller named Jordan, of Toronto, started to drive from Deseronto to Napanee. They were proceeding along Dundas street and had passed St. Mark's church when the horse shied at something on the road side. It was too dark to see anything and the driver gave the animal a cut of the whip to make him proceed. As a result the horse immediately reared up and jumped over what proved to be a cow which had settled down on the roadway for the night. The rig was upset and the occupants thrown out. Jordan escaped with a sprained wrist, but Pryn suffered severely. The skin was scraped off the side of his face, one of his ears badly cut, and he sustained a long and painful gash just below his chin which required some ten stitches before it could be closed. The rig was somewhat smashed and the harness broken. It is not improbable that the owner of the bovine and the corporation will have to pay a good bill of damages for this infraction of the cow by-law.

THE TORRID WAVE.

It happened in the early part of this week, and the victims of the metaphysical joke will feel better and weigh more if it never happens again. The scene was a certain little inn in the immediate vicinity of the turntable, and the sole occupants thereof were a professional gentleman and his clerk. They do not know how to get on their feet, and the weather had promised to get in his fine work for a few days they pursued the even tenor of their way while the perspiration dripped from their brows in great drops. "Let 'er drip," said the professional gentleman, "if the rest of the town can stand it I guess we can." But the woman, who came "hotter and hotter the place seemed to get, and nothing could be done to relieve the pressure. "It is hot enough for you?" asked a stranger at the inn, the professional gentleman. "It is hot enough for you?" asked a stranger at the inn, the professional gentleman. Assessment Appeal

It is said to be the intention of the Council of the township of Southampton to appeal against the valuation of the township of Prince Edward. It is felt that the township has been unfairly dealt with of late years, and the matter will be left to arbitration in the manner prescribed by the statute.

The Caravels.

The ancient vessels, the caravels, exact models of boats used 400 years ago by Columbus and party will be at Clayton on Saturday and Sunday July 1st. The association have recently erected a new stand capable of seating 1000 persons. The Herons run an excursion from Pictou,

Special rates will be made by boat and also by the R. of Q. Ry on both days.

Cricket Match.

The Deseronto Cricket Club plays its first match of the season to-morrow, at Kingston, against the Royal Military College Cadets.

As the fare to Kingston and back on that day, has been placed at the small sum of one cent, the players of the Deseronto club, no doubt a number of our citizens will avail themselves of the pleasure of seeing the match and giving our cricketers their moral support.

Hygiene.

At eight o'clock on Monday evening, 10th last, a quiet wedding occurred at the Parsonage of the Bridge Street Methodist Church, Belleville, when Mr. F. H. Hill, of the Deseronto, and Miss Eva W. Hill, daughter of Mr. A. W. Hill, of this town, were united in holy matrimony by Rev. N. B. Hill, of the Deseronto. The ceremony was performed in a most pleasant manner, and the wedding supper was given at the residence of the bride. The happy couple were accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. J. M. Smith, Miss

Looney, and a large number of friends.

The football match last Saturday between a team from Napanee and the Deseronto

Club junior eleven resulted in a victory for the latter. The play was slow in the beginning, but as the game progressed the Deseronto boys, as one of their remarkers, were inclined to the seniors and saving for the last half. When time was called for the game to end the Deseronto boys had 2 goals to their credit and the Napanee team had none. The game was a very interesting one, and quite a lot of wrangling. The Deseronto boys played well and Tremble and Goss, although poorly, were a fine game for Napanee. The Deseronto team was made up as follows: Goal,

Scissors, backs, Poltrina, Jamieson, half back, Clark, Harter, Edgar, forwards, Holmes, Doherty, Richardson, Rayburn, Edwards. Mr. Arthur Nasmith acted as referee and gave complete satisfaction.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. R. Taylor, the new Pastor, arrived last yesterday and will conduct the services next Sunday.

The Committee have appointed Wednesday, July 19th, as the date of the Sabbath School Festival. It will be held in the Methodist gymnasium. Admission to the festival will be free, and Mr. Thos. Gault will provide transportation at five cents per trip.

DESERONTO HIGH SCHOOL

INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

Inspector Hodgson, who recently visited the Deseronto High School, has forwarded an extract of his report to the Board which we present to our readers. He generalizes his opinion in the following words: "This school continues to maintain the high degree of excellence that has characterized it since opening." Here are some of the particulars. Referring to accommodation he places 12 out of 14 of the subordinates under his heading in the first class, desks being marked second class and waiting rooms blank. We will venture to assert that the Inspector finds but few schools so well equipped. Under the heading "Organization he finds that the provision made for teaching writing, reading and drill are in accordance with the regulations and that subject it is fair. The divisions of duties among teachers and the proportion of English literature to the character of the work of the last class of entrants is in good and excellent. It is pleasing to make such an encouraging report public. It is evident that the school was perfectly satisfied with what he observed of the work of this school. Principal Knight and his excellent staff of assistants must be complimented on such flattering testimony to the success which has followed their efforts.

HORSES FOR FOREIGN MARKETS.

Our farmers will be interested in knowing just how to put their horses and cattle in

THE STORM WIND.

O storm wind of the mountain, spreading dust
From cloud washed peak to cloud washed peak, How free
And strong and terrible thou art! The sea Dred thee in her vast womb, the offspring meet

Of her supreme espousals with the least
And passion of the sky. Thy sire to thee Gave as thy dower all power, that thou Shouldst be Monarch and lord wherever thy fierce wings beat.

The forests at thy feet fall down in fear;
The fair frail mist shapes cover in awful dread,
Or clamoring flee thy trumpet tones to hear.
But thou goest on unaided, as God's voice sped Down chaos at the first, and sphere on sphere The rolling worlds to ordered being led.

O wind! Inexorable and stern as fate, Thou art the messenger of God, to cry His coming through the heavens high To proclaim it sure, though it be late.

Rush on thy course like his consuming hotel To like his flame unquenched and fly To make earth ready for his drawing nigh In glory measureless and unceasing!

Speed on thy way ineffable and grand!
Be as the breath of God himself to purge From all uncleanliness. Let no foul thing stand, Affronting day! Sweep with resistless surge And with thy mighty breath cleanse the land Till thy triumphant cry is all aclang!

—Arlo Bates in Harper's.

Sold Dust In Floor Cracks.

"To one not acquainted with the manner in which gold dust will find its way into the streets and travel into cracks and crevices," says Mr. Charles Watson, a manufacturing jeweler of Boston, "it is difficult to comprehend how it will accumulate in these places.
We have just torn down one of our Boston shops, and beneath the floor we found just exactly $11,500 in the precious metal. Was it coin? Well, don't be facetious. You know that in choosing, grinding and engraving the refuse gold is ground into a small powder. This floats into the air, and no matter how you may sweep and cover your floor it will find its way underneath the planks. We always burn the dust, dirt and paper swept up weekly in the factory, and on every occasion we find in the street something like $100 scattered there."—Washington News.

How Chairs Came to Be Adopted.

The question of dignity had much to do or was probably the most important factor in the adoption of the raised seat in primitive times and its subsequent evolution.
The idea of physical elevation was always inherent in that of superior rank or power; hence the seat or throne of the chief or monarch, still further raised above the common level by a dais. By this means the ruler was not only more conspicuous, but more isolated, and consequently in less danger from the weapon of the conspirator.
—San Francisco Chronicle.

Entertaining a Political Visitor.

In these days of political meetings all over the country occasions often arise when strangers have to be entertained in the country, and of course a proper invitation must be sent by the master or mistress of the residence. It is sufficient for the host to write and say that it will give him and his wife great pleasure to entertain "Mr. So-and-so" for the proposed meeting. If a lady be consulted of course the ladies should write.—London Gentlewoman.

Education of Colored People.

It is stated that the colored people of the United States support 7 colleges, 17 academies and 59 high schools, in which there are 30,000 pupils. They have 1,500,000 children in the common schools and 24,000 teachers. More than 2,500,000 of the race can read and write.—Detroit Free Press.

Dogs That Go Crabbing.

The beach at Terra del Fuego is stony and is the haunt of multitudes of crabs.
When the tide goes out, the native dogs rush about to secure a dinner of the crabs.

The crabs hide under the stones, and very deftly the dogs dislodge them. With one paw they turn up the stone, and with a rap of the other the clinging crab is knocked off. The dog is so skilful and rapid in his work that the crab has no time to secure a firmer hold.

I have never known a native dog to be caught in a crab's claws, but the ships dog was less adroit. He soon learned that crabs were good to eat, but after a lesson in catching them he gave even the dead ones a wide berth.

I was one day walking along the beach and had stopped to admire the dexterity with which the native dogs secured their crabs. Duke was frisking up and down, enjoying his freedom from the ship's confinement. Once or twice I had observed him nosing wistfully over the freshly emptied crab shells. Suddenly he began yelping in a most pitiful manner, and I discovered by his actions that he was caught in a crab's grasp.

The poor dog tried to run away, but he could only hobble along on three legs, his fourth being held by the crab. Then he stopped and tried to bite his enemy. He got his foot free, but, alas! by some unlucky circumstance the crab caught the poor dog by the nose, and such a yelping as he forthwith set up!

I went to his assistance and succeeded in freeing him from his tormentor. A more crestfallen dog I never saw. He slunk off to the ship's boat, and it was several days before he recovered his usual spirits and could be coaxed on shore. After that Duke avoided crabs.—Cor. Goldthwaite's Magazine.

Americans Not In Politics.

Mr. Hygee, in his "American Commonwealth," has pointed out one reason why so few men of position and culture enter politics. Supposing a man of character and refinement to have made up his mind for patriotic reasons to face the muddy roads which lead to political power, he can only hope to represent the district in which he resides, as he is forbidden by law to stand for any other constituency. Country life as we understand it is unknown in America. No man lives out of a town if he can help it.

Now unfortunately in the States, as well as at home, the rich gentlemen who reside in the city have a tendency to congregate together. Suppose, therefore, a particular suburb of a city, returning one member to the municipal body, to contain several hundred men who by position and education would be well fitted to occupy seats on the council, only one of these could by any possibility find his way into the governing assembly of his town, while the others would be practically debarr'd from taking any similar position, although they might be the owners of property in several districts.
The owners of property in several districts within the city and be compelled to pay heavy taxation to a body upon which it was impossible for them to sit or even to obtain representation.

The same restriction would prevent them from being returned to their state legislatures, although a hundred members electoral districts might find it impossible to discover within their limits men equally fit to represent them.—Earl of Meath in Nineteenth Century.

For biscuits and pastry; it's really a surprise

CRICKET MATCH.

A friendly match between eleven of Deseronto Cricket Club and the Royal Military College, Kingston, was played on the grounds of the latter on Saturday last.
The game was won by the Cadets with eight wickets to spare. The Cadets excelled in batting and to that fact their victory is chiefly due. In their first innings five were retired with cypers; Struhenzie made the fine score of 39, the largest made during the day. For Deseronto Allan in the first innings made 25, an excellent score, he was less fortunate in the second when he secured 8. Macleod captured 20 runs in the second innings and Culhane contributed 15 well earned runs. Allan's bowling was very efficient; he took six wickets in the first innings. Considering the small amount of practice which the Deseronto eleven have had this season, they did very well. The game was umpired by Mr. H. Bedford, of Deseronto, and Mr. John W. Bell, of the College.

Eating Raw Dandelions.

Who ever heard of a man eating raw dandelions? There is at least one man in this city who can boast of doing it, when he supposed that no one was looking.
The man in question was on his way to the railroad station to go home, and also was bringing home something which his faithful wife had repeatedly told him not to bring.
On his way to the depot he stopped in at one of the numerous meat markets on Lincoln street to order the Sunday dinner.
When about half way through the store on his way out, he chanced to spy a large box full of dandelions, and he immediately walked over to them, picked one up, looked at it, smelled of it and put it in his mouth and ate it.
He must have liked it, for he put his hand into the box again and pulled up another one and ate that.
When the market man detected him, he was putting away the greens as fast as ever he could.
The market man was speechless; he did not know what to make of it, but when he got over his fright he went over to the man and gently told him that he must stop eating the dandelions unless he wanted to pay for them, as there was quite a large hole in the box, which a little while before had been filled with dandelions.
The man desisted and said that it was all right, and as he walked out of the store he was overheard to say, "That was great stuff."
What his feelings were an hour afterward is known only to himself.—Boston Herald.

THE DESPISED COLONIST.

It is a singular feature of the English character that a native-born Englishman can hardly be got to believe that a person who is born in the colonies can be his equal in ability or understanding. It was this contempt for the opinion of colonists which raised Bradstock's campaign in the old French war, and brought about the greatest disaster in the history of British arms and up to the date of the Afghan war in 1842 when one man returned the solitary survivor of a British and native force of 20,000 men, which were marched to Cabul. This was the most striking lesson perhaps that a nation ever received of employing mediocrity to do the work of genius; yet it did not prevent the sacrifice of another army from the same cause in the Crimea, and the still more striking disaster of Insomdale, a quarter of a century later. This feeling of contempt for the opinions of colonists was in its fullest vigor in the days of Braddock and Burgoyne, but there is plenty of evidence that it survives to the present day. Every raw Scotch or English school boy, who obtains a professorship in a Canadian college, although as newly elected as the student, will feel obliged to his lack in learning that the shell will cling to his back, immediately upon his assumption of the idea that he has a mission to harangue and lecture and teach the heathen world, as he is wont to do, which is the most common of the insufferable conceit would provoke the indignation and resentment of men of ability in Canada, were it not so utterly absurd.

TO INVADE THE UNITED STATES. Toronto, Ont., June 26. Another attempt to invade the United States by the Dodd's Medicine Company Ltd., of this city to the effect that they have decided to establish a factory and warehouse in Buffalo, N. Y., in order to supply the growing demand for Dodd's Kidney Pills in the United States. This remedy has never been advertised in the United States, but the popularity of the remedy and the news of its successes in Canada quickly reached the people of the neighboring republic, and orders have poured in, to be filled, from every State in the Union. The capacity of the Toronto factory is now being increased, and the company is now supplying the Canadian market and the demand for the remedy is so great that it is estimated that they can only do justice to both foreign and home demands by invading the United States and establishing a depot and factory there.

A HUGE FLOCK OF LOCUSTS. Several people in the vicinity of Roblin's Mills, Ameliasburg, witnessed a very strange spectacle one day last week. Egerston Wannamaker who was an eye witness says that he was planting corn in the field when his attention was drawn to what appeared to him at first to be a flock of small birds. They were flying about seven or eight feet from the ground in a north east direction. Mr. Wannamaker says the flock was fully 1400 yards long and 400 yards wide. A night hawk swooped down and found it to resemble a sparrow, but with large web wings and very large red eyes. The opinion seems to be that they were locusts.

HE TRIED TO ESCAPE. One day last week Edward Delaney, convict at the Kingston Penitentiary, tried to escape. He was working on the sch. Grantham, discharging coal. Unnoticed by the others he stowed himself in the hole, but on being missed a search revealed his whereabouts. He then got to the deck and jumped overboard, starting to swim for Portsmouth. He then became a target for the guards in charge and those on the wall. They fired twenty shots with no intention of shooting the fugitive, but with a view of forcing him to retreat. The swimmer worked admirably and the convict surrendered without being injured. He was sentenced in 1891, in the county of Grey, for eleven years for threatening to shoot a man.

HOW HE BECAME A FREE MASON.

The goat, the goat, the bearded goat. The horned, the hoofed, the hairy goat; As I'm a sinner of some note, This night I rode the Masonic goat.

He was a beast of wondrous size, With lengthened limbs and glassy eyes, And beard that swept the carpet clear, And horns that touched the chandelier.

Ye gods! If there's a time we feel Missgivings through our nodding ale; 'Tis when we through the mysteries float Down the dark Free-Masonry's gale.

Three times I was compelled to ride The beast around the Temple wide, And when I tried the fearful mount My heart's pulsations all could count.

Twice did I make the circuit fair, With hold on horns, on tail and hair; 'Till on the third attempt and teach, I left my pulsations all to reach.

And when I was with courage fired The goat had vanished, head and tail; And I was staid by one and all The liveliest Mason in the hall.

A REASONABLE OFFER.

Judge Peterson of Austin, Tex., a well known, highly respected gentleman, on the shady side of fifty, widower, with five children, full of fun and frolic, ever ready with a joke-to-take or give, was lured by the offer of a million dollars, and twenty for not taking another wife. She urged that he was hale and hearty and deserved a matrimonial means. The judge acknowledged the fact, admitted that he was convinced by the eloquence of his fair friend that he had thus far been very remiss, and expressed contrition for the fault confessed, ending with offering himself to the lady evening by evening, and to reject him after pointing out to him his heinous offense. The lady replied that she would be happy to take the situation so uniquely advertised, and become one of his bone and flesh of his flesh, but there was one, to her, more serious obstacle. "Well," says the judge, "name it. My profession is to surmount such impediments."

"Ah, judge, this is beyond your powers. I have vowed if ever I married a widow he must have ten children."

"Ten children? Oh, that's nothing," says the judge, "I'll give you five now and my notes on demand in instalments for the remainder."—Texas Siftings.

For the Good of Others

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. A. Williams, of the Silsbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass. "I am not saying a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows whereof he speaks, should hesitate to approve an Article of Merit and worth, from which he or his family have been directly benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend those benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe

Nervous Headache for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems surprising that simply one bottle could do so much for her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity, while her general health has been improved. Her nervous system has also been better. From our experience with Hood's Sarsaparilla I have no hesitation in endorsing its merits."

CANADIAN CHEESE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Canada has carried off a large share of prizes for cheese at the World's Fair. The exhibit of dairy products at Chicago was the greatest of the kind ever held in the world. The judging of cheese was a matter of the highest importance, the judges being John H. Hodgson, of New York, and A. F. Maclearen, of Windsor, Ont. They agreed to recommend that all exhibits of cheese which received a score of 90 and over should be awarded a medal and diploma. The number of single exhibits of cheese was 607. Of these Canada sent 102 from 110 different factories. Of the total number of some 135 exhibits won medals in the factory classes no less than 125 were from Canada. A strong point in honor of Canada was brought out in the fact that 31 exhibits of Canadian cheese were placed in the highest United States cheese. Of the exhibits which won the honor 60 came from Ontario, 52 from Quebec, one from New Brunswick, two from Nova Scotia, and one from Prince Edward Island. Of the cheese of the present season (1893) twenty lots from Quebec won medals, and one from Ontario. There will be three more competitions in July, September and October. The dairy commissioner is reserving the effort for Canada but only until September and October competitions. Of 25 Canadian exhibits in the June competition for butter thirteen secured medals, twelve of which went to Quebec. The great mammoth cheese was tested a hole two feet in depth being bored into it. It was pronounced to be extraordinarily fine.

How Oranges Are Sorted.

There are hundreds of orange groves in Florida, each producing many thousands of boxes every season. The oranges are sorted into three grades, called No. 1, 2, and 3. To sort all these millions of oranges would be a very long and tedious job were done by hand, and they would be imperfectly sorted, too, for one could not judge by the eye alone exactly what the size of the orange is, and many would go into the wrong box.

But to overcome all this difficulty the orange growers use a simple device called an orange sizer. Most of these are made of wood, with different sized holes cut in the bottom. Under the holes are placed boxes. A basket of oranges is brought in and dumped into the upper end of the sizer, which is just wide enough to allow them to roll down in single file, one after another. As they run by the first hole which is very small, all the little ones drop through into the box underneath. The rest roll on and in passing the second hole, which is one eighth larger than the first, the next sized ones drop through into another box, and so on by two more holes, which leave only the largest ones in the trough. These roll out to the lower end and are caught in a basket placed there to catch them. All the men have to do is to go around and put new boxes in place when the old ones get full.

The Process of Nature.

There is a process of nature which seems as inexplicable as the operation of the mind. Why does sugar always crystallize in a certain way and salt in a certain other way? Why do the crystals of minerals take the form of crystallization. Why does the mysterious movement of the sap in a plant proceed with such absolute regularity, that he rarely, say, of a variegated geranium a leaf, coloring of one shade is dropped at one point and at another shade is dropped at another point? Why does nature never make a mistake? Why does nature, or rather how does nature tell the wheat that it is grown in northern Canada and must produce many seeds to each plant so that some of them may survive the rigor of the winter? Why do the roots of trees that they expend all their forces in leaf and gorgeous flower and yield only a few seeds, as if they knew that in the ground a certain number of seeds would not find a good chance of growing? Did the plants learn these things themselves, as the mice learned that it was no use to be born with wings, and the horned cow learned that it was no use to be born with a disposition to give a large flow of milk, or the trout learned that he ought to be born with a trotting instinct? These are difficult questions, good questions, and the answers are not known. Excellent people who are satisfied that they "know it all"—Seattle Telegraph.

A TERRIBLE DISASTER.

LOSS OF THE VICTORIA.

One of the most frightful naval disasters of modern times occurred on Thursday, June 22nd, when the British battleship Victoria was sunk off the eastern shore of the Mediterranean and twenty-one officers and three hundred men were drowned. The world on the receipt of the sad intelligence. The Victoria was one of the finest and best equipped ships in the world. She was the flag of Vice-Admiral Sir George Tryon, one of the most famous naval officers of the day. She was followed by an special cable from Tripoli gives full details of the disaster.

About three o'clock Thursday afternoon the Victoria was seen in the Gulf of Genoa, the port and town of Tripoli. The five big ironclads—Victoria, Camperdown, Edinburgh, Minotaur, and Inflexible—were drawn up in full front. The Victoria was in the centre, the Camperdown on her left and the Edinburgh on her right. When they were within two miles of the shore Vice-Admiral Sir George Tryon signalled to turn and form in double line. This meant that the Victoria and Camperdown were to go ahead a little and describe a turn—the Victoria turning to the left and the Camperdown to the right. The Victoria was to advance side by side in the direction from which they had come, the others would swing into double column order, and advance two and two behind the leaders.

When the order was given the distance between the Victoria and the Camperdown was about half a mile. The execution of the order was easy enough for ships further away from the centre, but extremely difficult for the Victoria. The Victoria was to describe a turn, but she was to do it in such a way as to keep her bows well past with a few fathoms of each other, even if the movement was not under way. The Victoria was to describe a turn, but she was to do it in such a way as to keep her bows well past with a few fathoms of each other, even if the movement was not under way.

Whether because Admiral Markham, of the Camperdown, could not believe this movement was to be tried when the ships were so close together, or because he thought Admiral Tryon had miscalculated the distance, he did not act on executing Admiral Tryon's order, but signalled the Victoria to turn to the right. The Victoria began to turn at once, as she still held to the signal. The Camperdown no longer followed, but also began to turn. The brief delay, however, had been fatal. The Victoria had nearly turned, and the Camperdown swinging round, bore down upon her. Both ships were in the act. Admiral Tryon swung the Victoria so as to receive, at the smallest angle, the blow which both officers saw was inevitable. The Victoria was struck on the starboard side, and the forward part of the Victoria above the water line was hurled backboard to the great iron wedge so mightily propelled. There was a smashing of wood and iron plates, and eight feet of bow of the Victoria crashed and fell twenty feet into the bowels of the Victoria. The Camperdown was halted by the heavy armour of the Victoria, and as her bows were reversed she at once began to back away.

As all the other vessels were moving to get into line behind the two leaders, the Victoria's position was a most awkward one. The Victoria was struck on the starboard side, and the forward part of the Victoria above the water line was hurled backboard to the great iron wedge so mightily propelled. There was a smashing of wood and iron plates, and eight feet of bow of the Victoria crashed and fell twenty feet into the bowels of the Victoria. The Camperdown was halted by the heavy armour of the Victoria, and as her bows were reversed she at once began to back away.

The Victoria's bow was now pointed full toward the shore. It seems that Admiral Tryon did not know that the Victoria was in danger of sinking and shore is not far away she must be got into shallow water. peril, more horrible, descended upon them. The great engine, deep in the heart of the hull, and enclosed in water-tight compartments, was still throbbing at full speed, and the great screws were whirling around in the air. As the vessel sank these screws came near the heads of the crew, and descended into the midst of the struggling human beings. The vessel sank slowly, and when the screws were low enough to whirl in the air, they were thrown against the sides of the ship. ### CANADIAN IMPORTS.

ADVANTAGES TO THIS COUNTRY OF UNION WITH CANADA.

Question of Trade—What Continental Union Would Mean as Far as the Public Lanes in Canada Are Concerned.

The total value of the imports into Canada and Newfoundland for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1890, was in round numbers $100,000,000. The total value of the imports into the United States was $287,000,000, or only $12.69 per capita. We are more wealthy than our good Canadian cousins and therefore purchase more luxuries, expensive goods and works of art per capita than they do, which are not produced upon this continent. The true test of the necessities of life—viz., of sugar, of which we are consuming at present 25 pounds more per capita per annum than the Canadians do. It may be safely estimated that with continental union consummated—or, in other words, the political union of the United States and British America—the people who live north of the existing boundary line between the two great countries will not import more than $100,000,000 worth of goods in this country at the present time—that is, $10.00 per capita, or a total of $80,000,000.
